Academic and Career Advising

Parents and Families- Session Two

- Welcome
- Academic Resources
- Involvement, Engagement & Career Planning
- Upcoming!

Academic Resources - The Center for Disability Resources

Incoming Syracuse University students interested in accessing disability-related accommodations to address educational barriers should register with the Center for Disability Resources. Click here to access registration page.

Accommodations are fluid and students can meet with their access counselor at any point to discuss barriers and re-evaluate needs.

Do not wait to register due to not having proper documentation. Your assigned access counselor will discuss any specific third-party documentation they may need during your 'Welcome Meeting'.

Academic Resources - Center for Learning and Student Success

The Center for Learning and Student Success (CLASS) provides and facilitates academic support services for students:

– Group Tutoring

– Academic Mindfulness Workshops

- Peer to peer 60-minute small group sessions by CLASS coaches and tutors on mindfulness techniques

– “Maximize Your Learning” sessions

- One-on-one 60 min. with trained Academic Learning Specialist. Sessions are designed to help with time management, test-taking strategies, and more

– Individual Tutoring

- All tutors are current Syracuse University undergrad or grad students-fee involved

Contact CLASS at 315-443-2005 or class@syr.edu for additional information about services or to inquire about additional support options.

Summer Timeline--Parents and Families Series

Questions from students? They can connect with their assigned advisor via email

Upcoming Parent Sessions:

Wednesdays from 7-8 pm EST

July 19th : Start to Finish: Path to Graduation

August 16th : Supporting the Transition to SU

Preparing for Registration--AP, IB, & Transfer Credits

Have AP scores sent from your College Board account to Syracuse University

Official transcripts for college credits should be emailed directly from the institution to: astransfercredit@syr.edu

Tips:

- Transcripts must be sent officially to our office from the other college or university—not from email or your student’s email.
- Don’t know your AP score yet? That is okay. Just make sure College Board knows where to send them when they get released. Our code is 2328.
- Your student has been emailed this information.
